Report on Student Placements (Academic Year 2025–26)

The Department of Computer Science / Placement Cell of our college is pleased to report that students have successfully secured employment opportunities during the academic year 2025–26, reflecting the institution's commitment to career-oriented education and student development.

As part of campus recruitment and off-campus opportunities, students participated in interview processes conducted by reputed organizations. Notably, students have been provisionally selected by ISONXPERIENCES (Vendor of VIKASA) for the position of Tele Sales Representative.

The following students have received provisional offer letters:

- Ms. CH. Gayatri
- Ms. Vadapalli Sudhatri

They have been offered a starting salary of Rs. 15,474/- per month, along with performance-based incentives up to Rs. 65,000/-, and additional benefits such as PF and ESI. The place of posting for both candidates is Chennai.

This achievement highlights:

- The effectiveness of training programs conducted by the college
- Students' communication and professional skills
- Continuous guidance provided by faculty and placement coordinators

The college takes pride in these accomplishments and continues to strive towards enhancing employability skills among students through:

- Career guidance sessions
- Skill development programs
- Mock interviews and training workshops

The institution congratulates the selected students and wishes them success in their professional careers.
